COMPLAINT FOR VIOLATION OF AUTOMATIC STAY

PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. 362

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

COME NOW, Debtor AIDA SOCORRO NIN RODRIGUEZ, represented by counsel and most respectfully state, aver and pray:

JURISDICTION

1. The Court has jurisdiction over this proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1334 and the Standing General Order of the U.S. District Court for the District of Puerto Rico of July 19, 1984, referring all cases and proceedings under Title 11 U.S.C. to the Bankruptcy Court. Jurisdiction is also permitted on 28 U.S.C. §157 and 11 U.S.C. §105. This is a core proceeding and govern by Rule 7004 of the Bankruptcy Code.
2. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391(b) and ( c), and §1409 inasmuch as all acts, events and omissions complained of giving rise to this action occurred within the territorial limits of this jurisdiction.

INTRODUCTION

3. The Debtor, hereinafter (“Plaintiff”), filed for bankruptcy seeking relief under the provision of chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code on April 20, 2017, (dk-1).
4. Among the creditors and debts listed by debtor(s), was Defendant creditor Banco Popular de PR as servicing agent of Wells Fargo, hereinafter (“Defendant”), as an secured creditor, in schedule D for a mortgage note over debtor’s real property in the amount of $261,685.00 dollars.
5. That debtor listed in Schedule A, real property a cement house in Carr. 100, K.m. 56 Int., Calle Neptune, 130 Mirador, Cabo Rojo, P.R. 00623. Duly registered in the Property Registry San German, Farm. 23976.
6. Defendant was duly notified by the Clerk of the court of the filing of the Debtor’s case.

7. Defendant was duly notified of the § 341 meeting of creditors.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

8. This is the debtor second bankruptcy petition, the first bankruptcy case was filed on February 9, 2011 with case number 11-00978. Debtor received a discharge order on June 26, 2015.
9. Debtor made a mortgage loan with the creditor on the year 2004. The mortgage deed was filed at the Puerto Rico Property Registry hereinafter (“PRPR”) on the same year 2004. Later the office of “PRPR” gave notice to the Defendant that the mortgage deed had some faults which had to be address, if they were not address at that time the mortgage deed would not be deem as filed and registered.
10. Defendant did not address the faults that were notice by the office of “PRPR” therefore the mortgage deed was deem as not filed and the loan would not be secured by the collateral as the Puerto Rico state law requires.
11. As consequence of Defendant not having a valid lien against debtor’s property, Defendants claim in the debtor’s first bankruptcy case was discharge as an unsecured debt. See docket 1 and 114 of case no. 11-00978.
11. Debtor filed the present case on April 20, 2017, Case no. 17-02711.
12. Later on July 2, 2017 creditor as servicing agent for Wells Fargo filed proof of claim 2-1 as secured in the amount of $288,826.94. See proof of claim 2.
13. The Defendant’s proof of claim no. 2-1 was filed as a secured claim for a residential mortgage loan. It attached a mortgage note, title study and detail statement of the account.

14. That after debtor had a discharge order, Defendant when ahead and presented to the “PRPR” for mortgage registration on October 27, 2016, Deed no. 2088, of April 23, 2004, to record a MORTGAGE NOTE over debtor’s real property located at Barrio Miradero, the mortgage note is in the amount of $320,000.00.
15. That Defendant action is an outright violation of the discharge order pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 524(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, since defendant creditor received notice of all matters in the case no. 11-00978.
16. That Defendant action is an outright violation of the automatic stay pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, since defendant creditor received notice of all matters in the present case and continue to file a proof of claim of a debt that was discharge.
